“ECHO” CLUB NEWSLETTER

PRESIDENT’S PEN – Jody Ballard
president@scarboro.com.au

From the President

Finally, spring appears to have sprung, roll on the weekend and some great beach weather. I for one am looking forward to not being rained or blown off the beach over the weekend. It’s also only one more sleep to go until our Scarboro Halloween Spooktacular rolls into town and all the freaks, ghouls and monsters descend on the Club on Friday night! If you didn’t manage to secure a guaranteed ticket before they closed online then head on down and pay on the door. Remember that members can sign in up to 5 guests, so why not bring a skeleton or two out of the closet with you on the night.

One ghoulish who will be noticeable by his absence will be Angus our Beach Operations Director as he jets off over to Sydney this weekend to represent both Scarboro and SLSWA as the Youth Lifesaver of the Year. Angus is SLSWA’s inaugural Youth Lifesaver of the Year and it’s not hard to see why. From a fresh-faced Nipper in 2010 to becoming our club’s still fresh-faced Director of Beach Operations at just 20 years old, Angus is the epitome of perseverance and dedication.

His passion for lifesaving has seen him perform over 100 volunteer patrol hours for the 2017/18 season and adopt new technology to improve beach safety at his club, all while studying at university! Angus’ achievements to date include:

- Director of Beach Operations at Scarboro SLSC;
- Rescue Water Craft (RWC) Operator;
- Inflatable Rescue Boat (IRB) Racer and Driver;
- Ski Paddler at Scarboro;
- Patrol Captain;
- IRB Trainer; and
- Scarboro SLSC – Most Enthusiastic Member 2017

SLSWA caught up with Angus recently and got to the bottom of what drives him.

Tell us something interesting about yourself!

I joined Scarboro SLSC in 2010 at age 12. Since then I have become a Trainer, Patrol Captain and now at 20 I am Scarboro SLSC’s Director of Beach Operations.

Did you grow up with the beach? If so, where was your home beach?

Yes, I did grow up with the beach. Living in Perth I've spent nearly every summers day at some beach along the Western Australian coast.

When you're not down at the beach, what keeps you busy? (Study, work, other hobbies?)

When I'm not at the Surf Club I'm either at uni completing my Bachelor of Education or working as a waiter.

What does Surf Life Saving mean to you?

Surf lifesaving to me means actively engaging in the community and creating friendships and bonds that will last a lifetime.

What is the best thing about your Surf Life Saving Club?

The people!

What is your most memorable – whether it be funny, happy, tear-jerking or exciting – moment you've had during your time with surf life saving?

I can't narrow it down to one single moment. It's probably all of the hours spent down there with everyone training, on patrol and just hanging around the club.

How has Surf Life Saving shaped who you are today?

Surf Life Saving has given me the skills and knowledge to make me the person I am today. It has given me a base to put my skills to the test!

What advice would you give to someone who is interested in joining Surf Life Saving?

Don't wait, just join!

Good luck to Angus from the Board and all the team here at Scarborough SLSC. I look forward to seeing you down the Club Friday night or on the beach over the weekend, don't forget we all float down here!

Congratulations to Scarboro's Newest IRB Drivers!

Last weekend saw the completion of the 2018/19 IRB driver course in some extremely difficult conditions. Despite these conditions and a boat rollover or two, everyone passed their assessment with flying colours! A massive congratulations to Annie Kinsella, Chantal Waters, Hannah Plummer, Henry Irwin, Jacinta Waters, Kaley Gleeson, Teagan Butler and Kelley Snook. What an explosive, literally and figuratively, finish to a long and (hopefully) enjoyable course. See you on the water!

IRB Driver & Crew Regual

Thanks to those that came down on the weekend and completed their IRB driver and crew proficiencies. Can those who still need to complete this please attend the session below. If there is any reason as to why you cannot make this session, please email irbofficer@scarboro.com.au to organise another time.
