“ECHO” CLUB NEWSLETTER

PRESIDENT’S PEN – Jody Ballard

As our social media post says, yes, we are still pinching ourselves, Scarboro SLSC is SLSWA Lavan Club of the Year for 2020! On behalf of the Board, thank you to all our members, supporters and sponsors who have made this achievement possible. A huge amount of effort goes into running the Club and providing the services and opportunities that we offer to our members and the community. As we have seen this last season the more we lean in and lend a hand the more we can achieve as a Club together.

As part of our submission and interview for the award, we wanted to draw out what we have achieved against our focus areas and strategic plan and how these feed through to supporting surf life saving and SLSWA achieve their own goals:

- Saving Lives – through better trained, better skilled and more competent lifesavers.
- Sustainable – financially sound, good governance structures and here for the future.
- Developing Our Members – through SLSWA leadership programs, Woodside Nippers and Starfish Nippers, surf sports development and external partnerships.

In addition to the SLSWA Lavan Club of the Year, Angus McMillan picked up AGL Lifesaver of the Year and Belinda Somers picked up Woodside Age Group Manager of the Year. Congratulations to them both. Sadly, Hollie Sheils-Rudd missed out on Youth Lifesaver of the Year and the Club missed out on Patrol Club of the Year.

It was great to be at the Club when the awards were announced and to be able to celebrate and commiserate with our members, friends and families with good attendance for the live stream on Friday night. Normally these awards are held at Crown and this new format was very popular as it gave Clubs and their members across the State the chance to be together as the announcements were made and live-streamed into surf clubs and homes.

The Club and Angus will now go onto to represent us and SLSWA at the National SLSA Awards of Excellence later this year, good luck and fingers crossed.

Expressions of interest for appointed officers remains open until the AGM next Friday 31 July at 6pm. A full listing of the appointed officers and their current job descriptions are available on the Club website under the Club Structure page. If you are interested in nominating for a role or have any questions about the roles then please reach out to the relevant Director or me for more information.

Nomination forms can be found on the Club website along with other essential AGM information that has been issued already at scarboro.com.au/AGM.

See you down the Club in a week for the AGM on 31 July.
