“ECHO” CLUB NEWSLETTER

PRESIDENT’S PEN – Jody Ballard

Barely a month since States and our 2020/21 competition season winding up and we are already starting the 2021/22 season with the first round of IRB Racing kicking off at Sorrento this Sunday from 8am. Having previously raced it is a great sport to watch and one that Scarboro continues to do well in with multiple teams regularly making the finals. I’m pretty sure based on my crewing skills I might not make the grade anymore but you never know I may still get a call-up 😊

For those not heading to Sorrento Brain Hall will be back overseeing our Polar Bears swimming at Scarboro from 10am and Janet Hall will be firing up the coffee machine and oven for a warming drink and some morning tea after.

Last night Mark McGowan announced a further update and changes to the COVID-19 restrictions and their easing over the coming days and weeks. How this impacts our members, Club access, and operations is detailed later in the Echo. Whilst most restriction that impact us have been lifted one key one, mask-wearing remains, so in the words of Mark McGowan “use common sense” please.

See you down Sorrento beach on Sunday if you are watching the IRB Racing.
